

WILDING CRAN GALLERY

Robert Moreland, Slow Talker

February 24 - March 17

Wilding Cran Gallery is pleased to present Slow Talker, 6 new works by Robert Moreland. Moreland's works exist on their own terms, totally absent of definitive statements and free from metaphor. Blurring the line between painting and sculpture, he focuses on only the most essential elements. Moreland combines materials in a manner that seeks aesthetic synthesis while allowing their inherent characteristics to remain intact. The finished works elegantly free from distraction.

About Robert Moreland

Robert Moreland is minimalist sculptor/painter living and working in Los Angeles, California. Hailing from south Louisiana, Robert unofficially studied painting and sculpture at Louisiana State University. Moreland is a 2016 Rema Hort Mann Foundation Grant Nominee. His work has been exhibited at The Hole, NYC, Louisiana State Museum, the Shaw Center for the Arts, and the Contemporary Art Center, New Orleans. His work is in numerous private collections including, the Frederick R. Weisman Foundation in Los Angeles.